This could be our last reunion due to declining health and shrinking attendance. Therefore, I will not immediately deposit your checks. I will hold your checks until after the reunion business meeting.

If we decide not to hold a future reunion, I will return your “uncashed” checks to you, and use existing Chivo funds to pay for the banquet and other reunion costs.

If a future reunion is planned then I will deposit your checks to pay our bills and keep seed money in the Chivo fund for the next reunion.

At our Memorial Service we remember our departed shipmates. Too many have passed to list all their names, so for this year’s service I am asking you to submit the names of two departed Chivo shipmates that you would like to see remembered.

I know that memories fade. Our web site at <http://usschivo.org> has a sailing list that can be accessed by years on board. Crew members that have passed away are marked as EP (Eternal Patrol). In most cases you only need to give me their last name and approximate years on board.
